EXPENSES.Would Make Country Physicians Pay for Their Own Drugs—Members Object to the Idea.Most of the time of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon was taken up in discussion of the question of cutting off the supply of drugs to country physicians. In the past these drafts have been very large and a source of considerable expense. Dr. Raymond, who has for sometime urged economy in all branches of the bureau, brought up the subject and strongly pressed the importance of cutting off the allowance altogether, leaving the physicians to draw their drugs from the plantations or pay for them themselves.There was objection to the proposal on several grounds. One was that country physicians do not as a rule earn very large sums of money and having to pay for their drugs would work a hardship. Another was that in the promiscuous selection of drugs by the physicians there might be a danger of getting bad goods. A third suggestion was that if country doctors were cut off the local dispensary should also be cut off as the system was the same in general. After a lengthy discussion the matter went over.Attorney-General Dole and Prof.
Shorey were appointed a committee to draft a new drug law, there being many imperfections in the old one.
An object in view, also, is an amendment which will make it easily possible to convict drivers of milk wagons for delivering impure or watered milk.Inspector Shorey submitted his report of the month of January, giving the number of specimens examined and the details in each case. A number of impure articles were discovered, most of them coming, however, from Chinatown. Ahulmann cream, which has been growing in popular favor locally, was found to be preserved with formalin.Reports were also submitted by the various inspectors, the city physician, sanitary engineer and other officials.
McBryde Sugar Company offered to pay most of the expenses of the hospital at Koloa on condition that its patients be treated there.ORDER OF EAGLES.More Than 100 Men Sign Roll for New Society.About 100 men in the city have formed the preliminary organization of a lodge of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.
It is expected that a commission will shortly arrive here from Seattle to formally install it and accept it into the order. Since the start began rapid progress has been made and the promise for a substantial organization are already very bright.The Eagles is a new order, having been started just three years ago. It has as its objects the mutual advancement of the interests of its members, be they poor or rich. It is a fraternal order to the extreme, taking care of sick members and their families. The costs of belonging to it consists merely of initiation fees and monthly dues.
Though only three years old the order now has 11,000 members.BAND CONCERT.If the weather permits the band will Finally Settled Yesterday.An important meeting of the managers of the Mardi Gras ball was held at the Drill shed yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Graham presided. The principal matter discussed was the arrangement of the seats for the spectators. It was decided to construct the boxes, eighteen in number, about the stage. There will also be seats for 500 additional spectators. The boxes have all been taken, as high as $100 being paid in one instance, $50 in another, the rest selling for $25 each.The royal throne is to be erected at the head of the hall in front of the stage. The stage will accommodate four boxes and the remaining fourteen are to be built along the sides and in the corners of the hall.Mr. Humburg was appointed chief of the ushers. There will be twelve gentlemen in this corps, six to attend to the reception of the guests and the rest to seating the crowd. The carnival colors will be red and green and yellow and white and the ushers will carry wands with streamers of these colors.Refreshments will be served in a large tent donated by Joseph Gilman.
This tent will be located on the drill grounds close to the shed and will be communicated with the shed by means of an enclosed canvas canopy.No unmasking will be required upon entering the hall. The dress and masks will be retained until midnight when all will be required to remove them.
No person unmasked will be permitted to take part in the grand march or dance.BORN.RYAN—In Honolulu, January 6, 1901, missionary who did valuable services during the siege of the legations in Peking and who is now in this country, has made a remarkable discovery, which is likely to be a subject of discussion. Baron Ketteler the German Minister was murdered on the 29th of June in Peking. The announcement of his death appeared in a New York newspaper on the 17th of July. The telegraph from Peking under the date of June 16, four days before the assassination. Thus far there is no explanation, although Mr. Gamewell insists he is sure of his dates.
